

The Millard Sheets Art Center presents

The Art Classic

Exhibiting during the LA County Fair Sept. 4-27 2015

The first exhibition of Millard Sheets Art Center Manager Thomas Canavan and Los Angeles Art Association (LAAA) Director Peter Mays, The Art Classic joins 10 emerging artists of LAAA in a thoughtful and exciting exhibition during the LA County Fair.

The ten artists are:

Caroline Jones
Diane Silver
Gabor Ekecs
Steve Jakobsen
Tanner Goldbeck
Josh Levine
Tom Lamb
Rachel Kaster
Jana Cruder
Vincent Tomczyk

The Art Classic spotlights these artists and their approach to contemporary art through a multitude of media, including paper, glass, wood, painting, photography, drawing and sculpture. The exhibition, which is open during the LA County Fair through Sept. 27, harkens back to the early days of the Fair, when iconic Los Angeles artists were featured, displaying their work to millions of Fairguests and propelling many of them on the international art stage.

The opportunity to exhibit Los Angeles artists to the guests of the LA County Fair provides these artists with an opportunity to communicate their work to an audience that may not have access to the rows of galleries and museums located throughout Los Angeles. The result is increased accessibility to contemporary art here at the Millard Sheets Art Center, surrounded by some of the most creative and inspired artists working today.

For press inquiries contact:

Renee Hernandez – PR Supervisor - 909-865-4261
Thomas Canavan – Millard Sheets Art Center – 909-225-1788
Peter Mays – Los Angeles Art Association – 310-652-8272